Family Connection

OVERVIEW: Compassion starts by noticing when others are sad, hurt, or not feeling well. However, compassion is not just seeing a need—it means stopping what you are doing and getting involved. Even something simple such as listening, offering advice, or sharing a meal can help a person or family in need. Even though you can't solve every problem, you can usually find something useful to do, even if it is very small.

Compassion

Definition: Helping those who are hurting

I WILL...

- Notice when others are hurting.
- Stop to help.
- Take time to listen.
- Do what I can.
- Be kind, regardless of differences.

Zebras show compassion by caring for their young, protecting the injured, and defending one another.
