UPCOMING SPEAKER - On Sabbath July 9th, we'll be honored to have as our guest Elder Charles White, great grandson of James and Ellen White. Elder White will be making a presentation during Sabbath School time with the title, "Four Boys in the White House". James and Ellen White had four sons. You will hear stories about each of these boys and discover how the enemy tried to impact the ministry of James and Ellen through attacking the health of their sons. You will discover what effect this had on the White family and how God helped them through each crisis.

For the worship service Elder White will share a message entitled "A Passion for God's Love in Jesus". We will look at the primary motivating focus of Ellen White's life & ministry. There will be anecdotes & stories (including important quotations) about pivotal incidents in her life that shaped & revealed her deep love for God. This presentation will help us see her most significant priorities & how that impacts our own. (A White Family Tree will be gifted to all who attend)
